Dear Herb

I consider it a great and wonderful privilege to sign on this front page.

I'm really glad I've gotten to know you these past two years. Your friendship has really meant an awful lot to me. Cedar will always hold lots of memories to me. Like Spanish II class, Chloe and what a good but grouchy director you were and of course those kisses in Scotts apartment.

You're really a great kid and I know that deep inside you want to do whats right. Herb there's a big goal we have to reach in life and unless we have Christ we'll never make it and I want you to be there because I'll be looking for you.

Be good and I wish you good luck and success in all you do in the future.
See you at S.M.C. next year.

Love ya,
Carol

Dear Herb

I'm really glad to be your friend you always seem to make me laugh when I'm in a bad mood (or a happy one!) I can see you someday as a great ~~doctor~~ choir director. It's a good profession 'cause your back is toward the audience! Oh by the way - don't forget my slams.

Good Luck

Anyone carefully looking will catch
if the underbrush stirs,
the tangle of creation.
A blur in hiding,
these animals
in their simple ease.
We gracefully tumble into it, burying ourselves with the closeness of it.

Strange
how under that condition called Nature we see
THE GOD OF HEAVEN AND EARTH.
Forgetting everything else
that goes along with it.
That God is also found in cities,
buildings,
public parks,
people,
and greatly noticable everywhere.

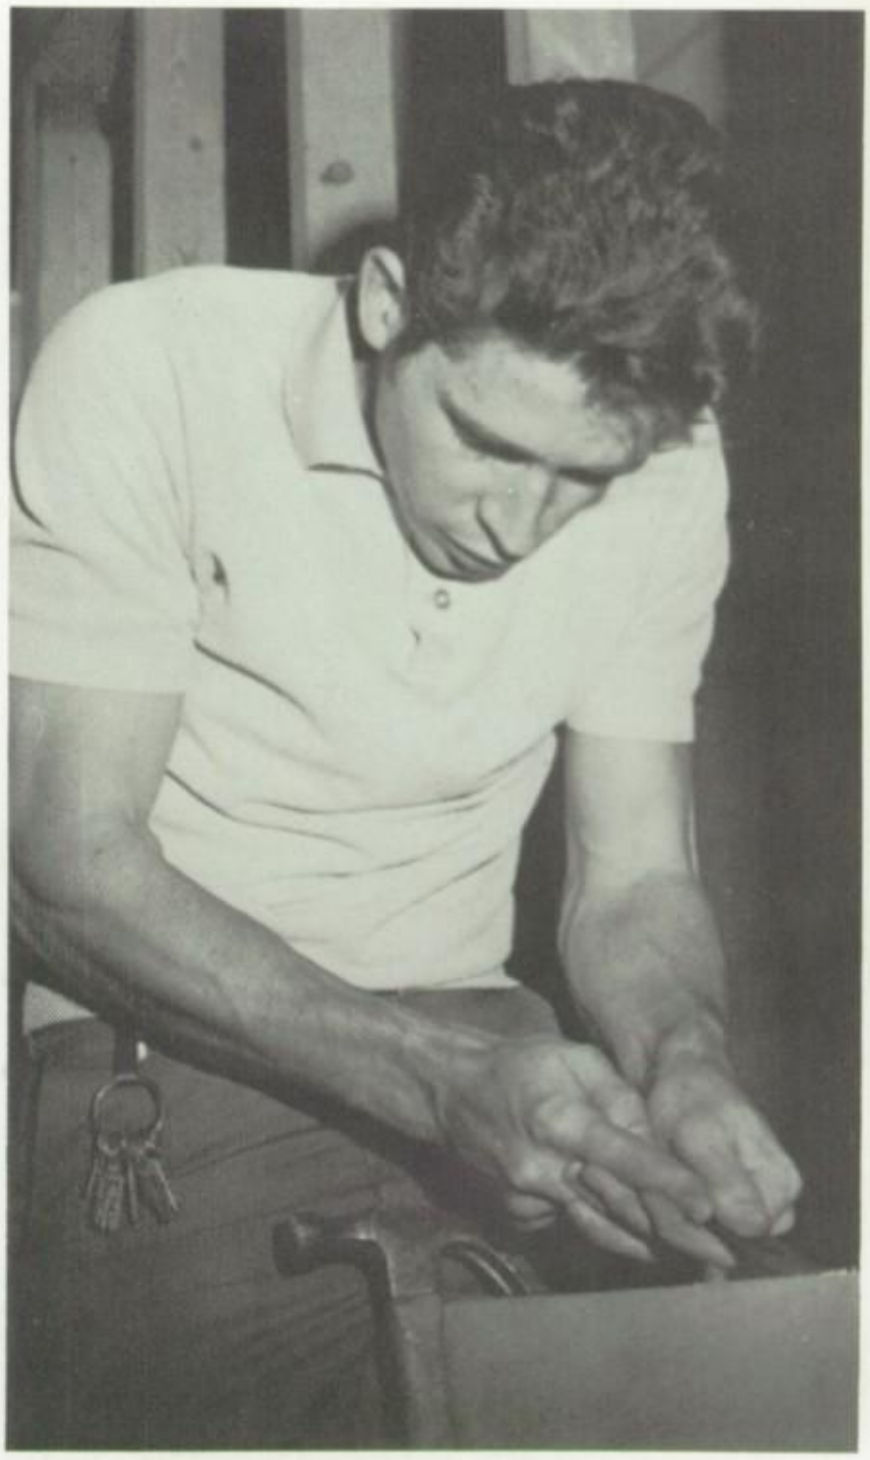
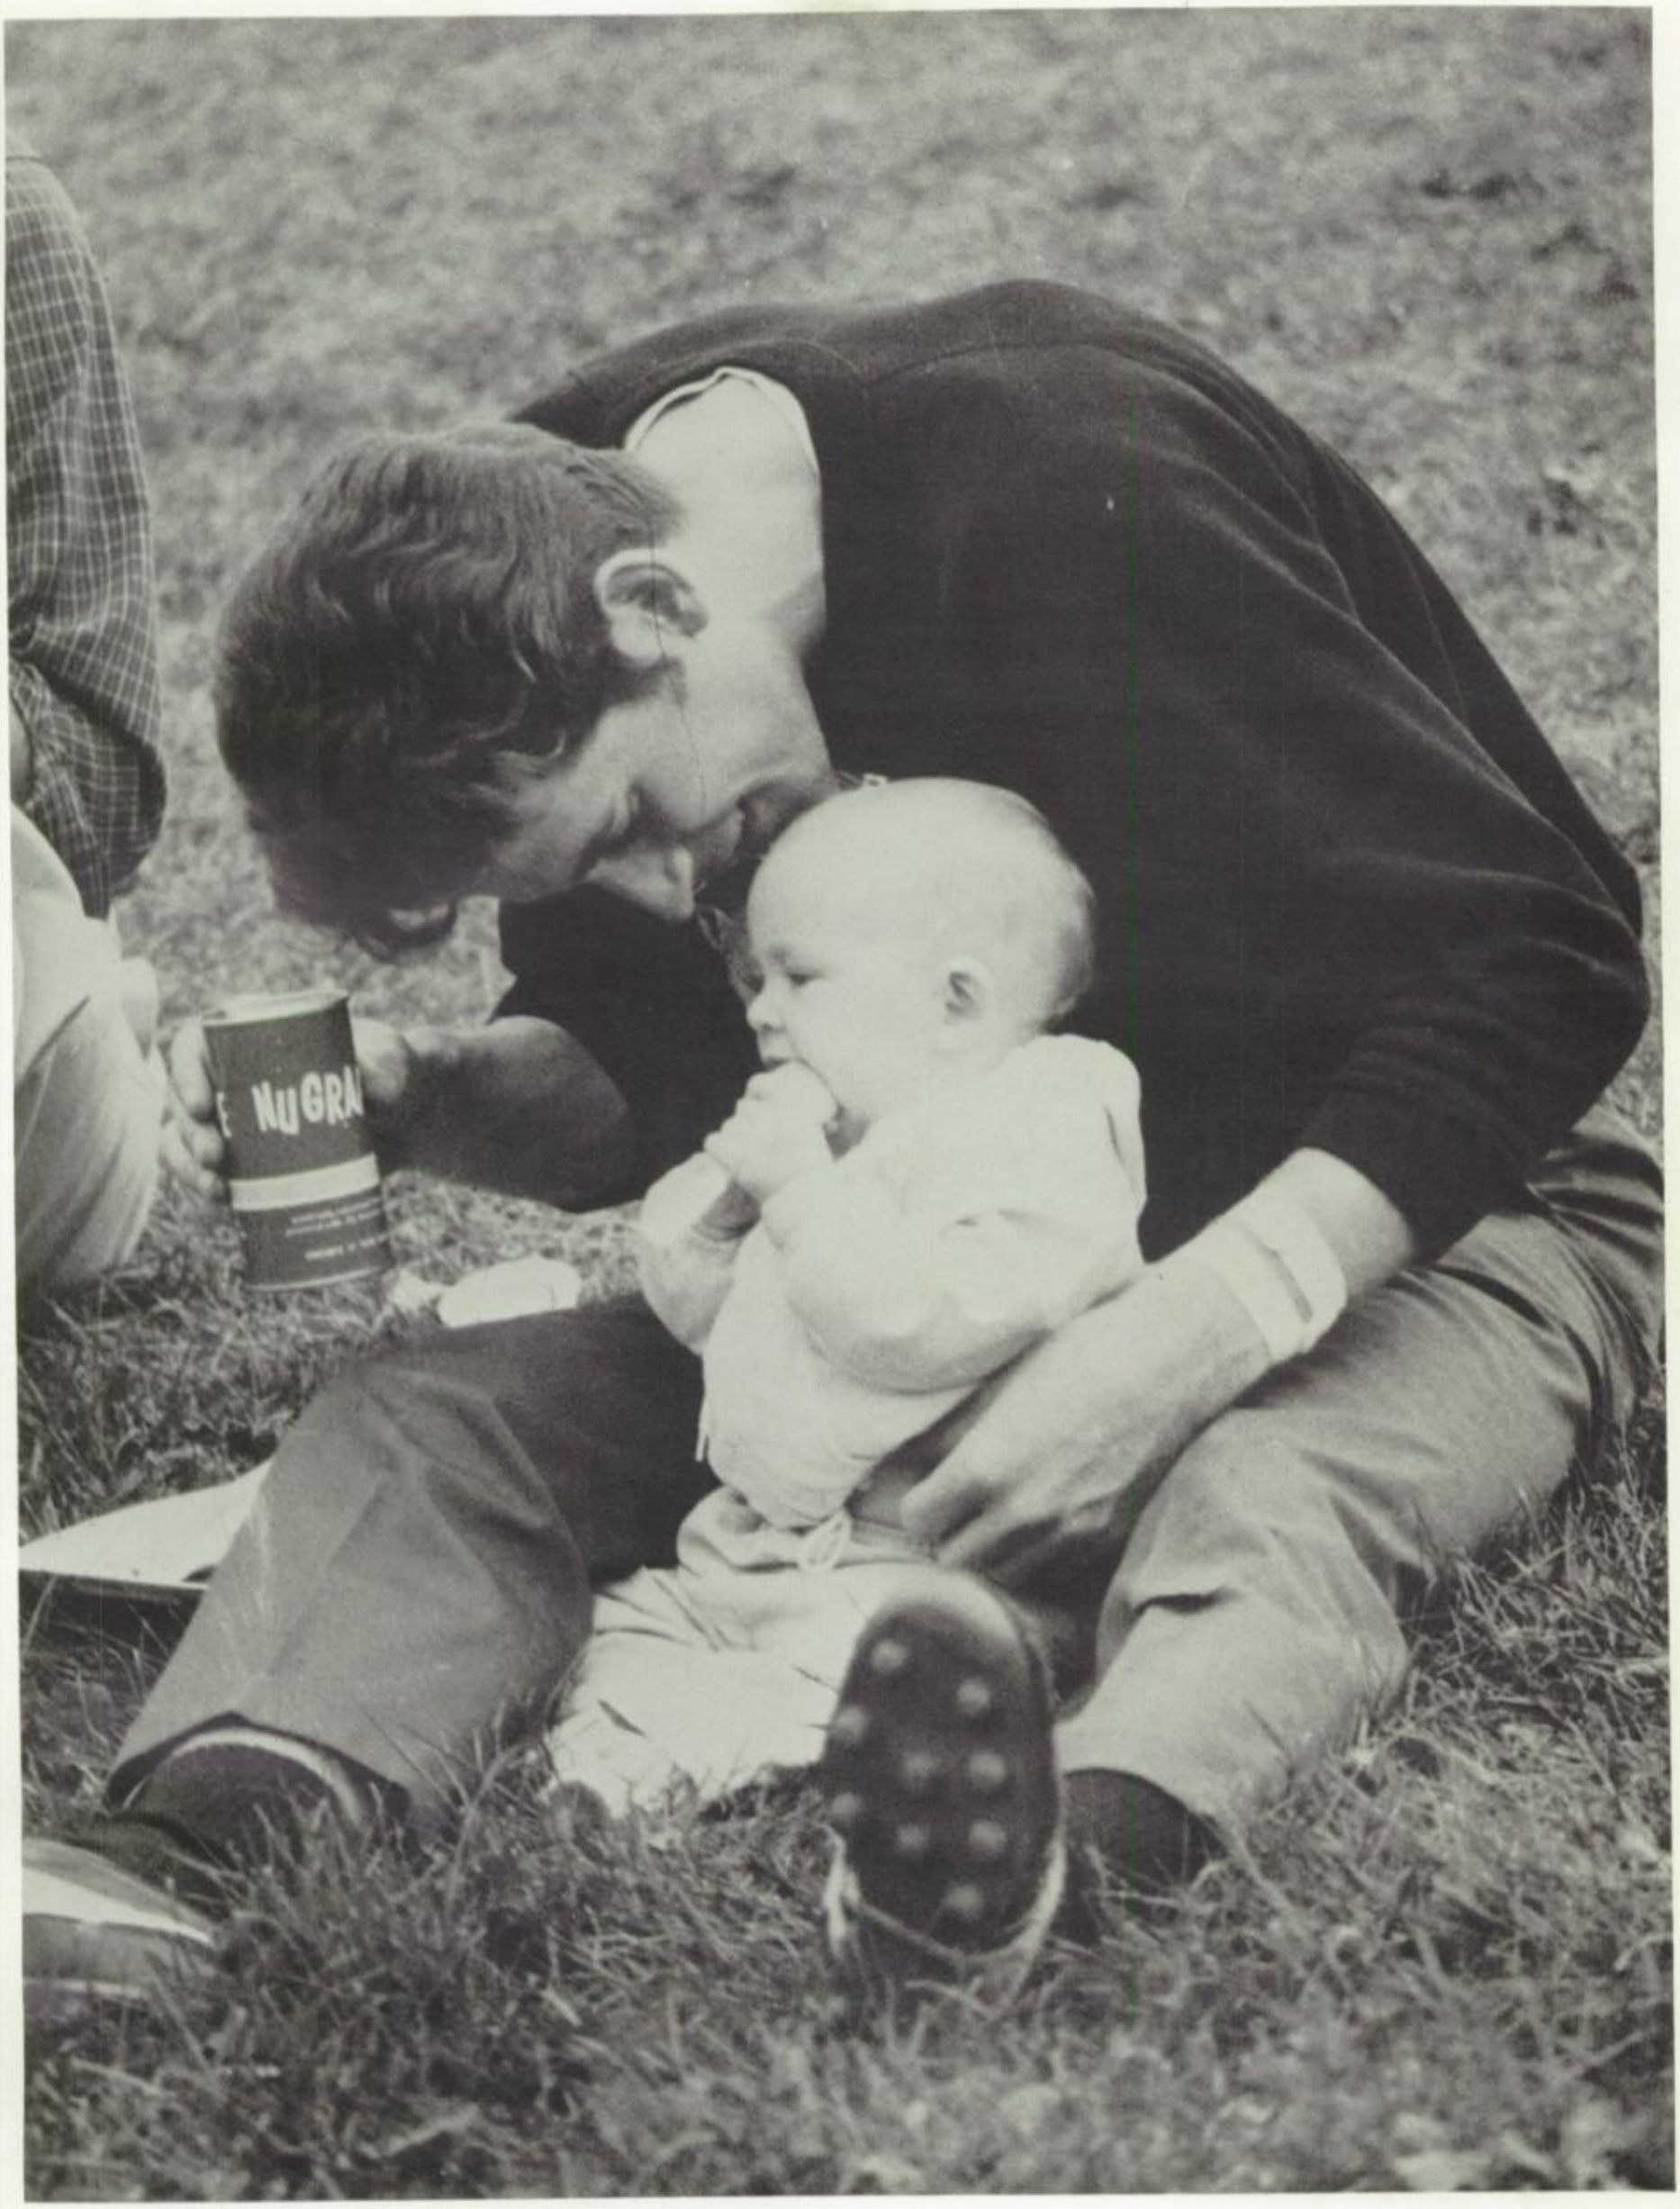
dedication

Love is shown in many ways. It could be talking over a problem until late at night, or rushing someone into town for something that isn't really too important. It could be trusting a student for a job with considerable responsibility, and giving them a second chance when they make a mistake.

It could be taking the sponsorship of the Student Association, the CEDAR MEMORIES, and Ushers Club, besides supervising the press and being Boys' Dean.

But whatever it could be, it has been shown to us in the past few years. And because you have reached out to us, Mr. and Mrs. Scott, we would like to show a little bit of our love in return by gratefully dedicating this Yearbook to you.





NU GRA

our principal speaks

As these lines are being penned on this New Year's Day for reflection in the months to come, one can only speculate on what this new decade will hold in store for each of us. As the tradition is made from the "spectacular sixties", which has seen man not only walking in space but actually exploring the moon, into the "fantastic seventies", one's imagination would be hard put to comprehend to any extent all the possibilities that lie ahead.

All of us have seen how tenuous life can be. We have seen gifted lives snuffed out in an instant, and we would do well to pause a moment in the hustle and bustle of life to reflect on our own personal relationship to our Maker. Our Lord and Savior could very possibly make His long-awaited appearance during this coming decade. How is it with you who read these lines?

It is my prayer that we each one individually will take every advantage of every opportunity presented to us to improve our talents for service to our fellow mankind and to our Maker. Are we not told that, "The Lord desires us to obtain all the education possible, with the object in view of imparting our knowledge to others. None can know where or how they may be called to labor or to speak for God. Our heavenly Father alone sees what He can make of men . . . We should not let slip one opportunity of qualifying ourselves to work for God." E.G. White, Christ's Object Lessons, p. 333.

Man is naturally curious, yet the drive of learning far surpasses it. And though the search of knowledge may never be ended, a few should be acknowledged along the way. But there's more than just high grades to a good student. There's also the many extra-curricular activities, their regular work, and the getting along with other people. So being able to keep the grades, plus all the other things of school life, make these students very worthy of their honor.

Dear Herb (our "great" chorus director!)

Well, this has been quite a year, huh? Remember all the great times we had in Chorus. Remember the time we set the stand so when you hit it, it would go all the way down! I'll never forget the time we were singing "Far Away Places" and we sang Timbuck 4 instead of Timbuck 2! may God bless you now and in your future years. Be good, at least try! Have fun this summer. Remember the great Freshman class, "73"

FACULTY

teacher of the year

"In the beginning God created the heaven and earth . . ." Simple. Learned from childhood and accepted in faith. But age brings doubts and need of proof. This is why instruction in God's nature is so needed and appreciated. When the godless theories of evolution abound so freely and is so widely accepted, Christian teachers are wanted who thoroughly believe in the wonderful and beautiful story of Creation.

But believing is not enough. The ability of understanding and knowing how nature functions is also needed. God has planned the dedicate patterns of life so complexly, that learning and studying them can only erase the questions of the earth's origin.

At Cedar Lake, we are fortunate to have a teacher who accepts and understands God's nature. Through his classes and personal life he has shown us that God is our creator. This is why we have you, Mr. Ekkens, TEACHER OF THE YEAR.

His presence was here for one week. A quiet man who walked around the campus almost unnoticed, yet he was never alone. The friends he made and the private talks of encouragement were equally as important to us as his daily chapel talks.

Elder Leslie Neal left as quietly as he came, but God's presence has been here since. Now, He too is walking among us and giving encouragement.

The organization of YOUTH ACTION CORPS, the results of many hours of work and planning. The idea was to give us a chance to excercise our faith and to help others. But particularly for the areas we worked best in. So students were asked to volunteer, to enable everyone to have a chance for participation. From each of the eight groups, leaders were selected to plan and promote the activities of their own group. With this new plan we hope to make ourselves, as youth, ready to serve others.

"Come Alive, God's Chosen Generation." We discovered that none of us were really living. Being chosen of God, there must be something better than what the world has to offer. And that was what the volunteer speakers talked about. The excitement of this new life and how to handle the new problems with it, is just the beginning of being "God's Chosen Generation."

prayer bands

The chapel never looks the same as it does on Friday nights. Neither do any of the other meeting rooms for class prayer bands. And even though these are our everyday surroundings, the atmosphere is always different. Maybe it's because we're thankful for the rest of the week-end, and the room is lightened with candle light. Or perhaps it's God's presence and the awe of talking with Him.

Dear Herb,

5-24-70

Alot can happen in one week. at least to me. I've gotten to like you very much. You are an exceptionally talented person and I'm proud of you. You can talk to people as well as listen and I like that, because then I don't feel so silly when I babble on and on about some dumb thing. You are understanding and kind. Besides all of that you're cute! I like your hair and you have a cool smile and beautiful eyes. I could go on but I want to say that you helped me alot. I want you to be absolutly sure that I'm not dating you to hide my hurt feelings. I'm doing it because I like you and want to get to know you better.

Thanks for asking me to march up with you. We have good memories from Spanish class and I think next week-end will leave us with even better ones. I've had some great times this year and it was a good one for me.

I'm glad that this year is ending with you as an important part of it.

There are so many more things we can discover in each other yet + I hope you want to.

Please remember me wherever you go.

Love

Mary

We will always stand as individual people whether we find God or not.
Our search may also be in either the country or city. But we are like a solitary tree surrounded by nature where He is constantly present. Always near.

Herb,
I hope you have a good year and have lotz of fun this summer

Herbie,
You a cool and charming kid, (sorta) Remember all the fun we've had this year. Remember when all we did was sit around your pool and shining armor and all the other stuff. You've been a great person to flirt with and remember to always stay out of trouble and remember to always wet on your hands and keep your word. I have any problems in your life, and you'll be a great success.

Your friend
